James H. Cone

The Easy Conscience of America's Churches

The father of black liberation theology challenges liberal Catholics to embrace interracial dialogue, "not to feel good, but to wrestle with the evil of white supremacy" that persists in America.

James Carroll

Enhancing Democracy: The Key to Religious Reform

"Democracy is the latest gift from a God who operates in history." Carroll shows how Israel's faith, Jesus' teaching and the church's history demand that we, the people of God, dismantle the autocratic structures of the church.

(Chung) Hyun Kyung

Somewhere Over the Rainbow: Diversity, the Lifeline of all Earthlings and Beyond — A Salimist Manifesto

The Korean ecofeminist theologian calls us beyond the politics of differences to a rainbow coalition of all living beings. A riveting solo dance by Melvin Miller, captured on video, complements Hyun Kyung's message.
